Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

NOTE: In response to applicant's argument that Schonhorn does not disclose a length of adhesive tape comprising three portions, a leader portion fixed to the core, a foam portion, and a usable tape portion, and further argued that Schonhorn does not disclose a length of adhesive tape comprising the three portions, The adhesive, foam and tape taught by Schonhorn et al. provides an equivalent function of the tape leader portion, foam strip and usable tape portion wherein the tape leader portion is adhered to the core, the foam portion is positioned after the leader portion and the usable tape portion is adhered and wrapped around the foam as desired by the applicant wherein the invention produces a collapsible effect by enveloping the outer surface of a non severed core with foam (col. 4 lines 56-col. 5 line 1). Furthermore, the adhesive disclosed by Schonhorn et al. in col. 5 lines 4-6 functions the same as the tape leader portion claimed by the applicant since it adheres to the foam support portion prior to the foam support portion being positioned before the usable tape portion.

In response to applicant's argument that Schonhorn fails to disclose a usable tape portion wherein a foam strip is fixed to the tape foam support portion, in figure 5 applicant discloses a core with a foam portion that is adhesively attached to the core, however fail to disclose the usable tape portion, however, Schonhorn discloses that figure 5 is an alternate embodiment of a collapsible core according to the invention with is a roll of adhesive tape therefore, the usable tape portion wherein a foam strip is fixed to the tape foam support portion, although not shown in figure 5, the usable tape portion is to be inserted on top of the foam portion wherein the invention produces a collapsible effect by enveloping the outer surface of a non severed core with foam (col. 4 lines 56-col. 5 line 1). (See 37 CFR 1.116 and 41.33(a)).
